

Artists Rifles Clubhouse

' My Father, the Man who never Was' Guest Speaker— Nicholas Reed Saturday 23rd March 2013 at 1930h

During the second world war, Nicholas Reeds father Major Ronnie Reed was the case officer for the roguish double agent, Agent Zigzag; aka Eddie Chapman. The talk centres on his recent publication and background to his fathers life examining several aspects including how his father as a young man in his twenties (with no money and minimal qualifications) reached such an important position—including his heading up the M15 anti-Russian department and dealing with some of the most notorious spies in recent history such as Philby, Burgess and Maclean.

Nicholas Reed is the author of several Art and History Books including:
Camille Pissarro at Crystal Palace, Pissarro in West London, Monet and the Thames, Frost Fairs on the Frozen Thames, Sisley on the Thames and the Welsh Coast and My Father the Man who Never Was.

The book will be available to purchase on the evening priced £9.95 and is also available through www.lilburnepress.co.uk
